

Warning Scam Email Message

Farmington Woods has just learned that a scam email message is being circulated that did not come from our office.

Please do not reply to the email or email address.

Gina Talarico, Accounts Receivable/Member Billing's email would come from her Farmington Woods email address gina@farmingtonwoods.com

Please make sure to pay close attention to a sender's full email address. Any address that does not specifically end @farmingtonwoods.com is NOT from a staff member or reliable source.

The below message is a scam and did not come from our office.

Please note, we do not have any member's banking information in our accounting system.

If you receive estatements for the Master Association and District they will be sent out from gina@farmingtonwoods.com on Friday and Monday.

We are very sorry for this unfortunate and unthinkable act.

Good Day,

Due to the current outbreak of the novel Coronavirus disease (COVID-19), we have decided to halt all payment of invoice via Check. We now prefer all payments be made via WIRE AND ACH PAYMENT until further notice.

Please let me know when you need our account information as invoice payment is due already, check your last invoices.

Find attachment.
