Clubhouse, Heritage Room

The Farmington Woods Women's Club proudly invites the entire Farmington Woods Community, both men and women, to a special and extremely important program on Safety/Situational Awareness. Our speaker, John Colangelo, is the Community Security Director for the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford and will teach how to remain as safe as possible in unpredictable situations. Please share this incredible opportunity with others in our community. There is no fee to attend and no advance sign-up is needed.

Be AWARE: Situational Awareness Training

FEATURING JOHN COLANGELO

About John

John Colangelo joined the Secure Community Network (SCN) in 2021 as the Community Security Director for the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford. One part of his challenging job is teaching communities strategies for staying safe individually and collectively. Before taking this position, John served as a police officer for three decades.

The Program

Situational Awareness training emphasizes how to be alert to your physical and electronic surroundings to avoid scams and recognize threats to yourself, your property and your surroundings, no matter where you are. If you know what to watch for and how to react you can save precious time!

Farmington Woods Women's Club - Note Cards

Do you need new note cards? The Board members of the FW Women's Club are selling note cards depicting winter, spring, summer and fall here in beautiful Farmington Woods. They will be available for purchase at this above event. You may also email RachelKeyser@comcast.net and schedule a showing! Attached is a sample of two of the cards in the 4 pack for $10.
